Unit Five 5

How Do I Follow Islam?
Lesson 20

What is the Shahadah?

Ashahadu an la ilaha illa Allah. Wa ashahadu anna Muhammadar Rasulullah.

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهًا إِلَّا اللَّهَ
وَأَشْهَدُ أَنْ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ

There is no god but Allah, and Muhammad is His Prophet
Muslims must remember that Allah is the only God. If we forget about Allah, then Allah is not happy with us. Do you remember what happens to people in the next life who do a lot of bad deeds? Allah is not happy with them and they might go to Jahannam, the place of punishment.

The people who do good deeds and who Allah is happy with, will go to Jannah. That is the best place to go after this life ends.

Allah gave us a way to remember to be good. It is two sentences that are called the Shahadah. In the Shahadah we say that we believe only in Allah and that Prophet Muhammad is the last Messenger of Allah.

We say it in Arabic as "Ashahadu an la ilaha illa Allah. Wa ashahadu anna Muhammadar Rasulullah."

It means "I declare that there is no god but Allah, and I declare that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah."
There is no god but Allah.
Allah said in the Qur’an to take whatever the Prophet gives to us. His Sunnah is the best gift because it gives us an example of how to be good Muslims.

There is only one Allah, and Prophet Muhammad is the one that Allah chose to carry His last message to the people. We should ask Allah to bless Prophet Muhammad every day. This makes Allah and Prophet Muhammad happy with us.
QUESTIONS TO ANSWER

Part A.
Read each word and write down what it means.

1. Sunnah:

2. Salah:

3. Shahadah:

Part B.
Answer the questions below.

4. Why did Allah send Prophet Muhammad to us?

5. What two things does the Shahadah teach us?
Remembering Allah

Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught us different ways to say how great is Allah. Every time you say them, Allah is pleased with you and tells the angels to write down rewards in your book of good deeds.

Here are three things Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught us to say that pleases Allah. The first one is the most important one:

1. La ilaha illa Allah. Muhammadar Rasulullah.

There is no god but Allah. Muhammad is the messenger of Allah.

أشهد أت للاه إلا الله وحده لا شريك له،
و أشهد أت محمدًا عبده ورسوله.

I declare there is no god but Allah. He is only one and He has no partners. And I declare that Muhammad is His servant and messenger.

3. Subhan Allahi wal hamdulillahi wa la ilaha illa Allahu wallahu akbar wa la howla wa la quwwata illa billahil aleeyil azeem.

سبحان الله والحمدلله ولا إله إلا الله والله أكبر
والحول ولاقوة إلا بالله العلي العظيم.

Glory and praise be to Allah. There is no God but Allah, Allah is greater and there is no power or strength except with Allah, the High and Supreme.

Can you learn these three? Learn them carefully and feel happy about what you can do!
Lesson 21

Why is salah good for me?
Prayer, which is also called salah, is very important for us. Muslims pray five times every day.

Do you remember when those times are?

Allah ﷻ told us that we have to pray every day because it helps us to remember and thank Him. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught us that we should learn how to pray at the age of seven so that we can make it a habit every day. A habit is something you do every day. We can pray with our parents so that we get more reward for praying together!

Salah helps us in many ways. When we pray, we remember Allah ﷻ. When we remember Allah ﷻ, we become nicer people. We want to try our best to be good and not bad.
We need to pray on time.
Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said praying five times a day is like washing in a river five times a day. It washes away our bad deeds and helps us stay clean and good all day long.

Allah ﷻ promised to forgive some of our bad deeds. When we do salah. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said that bad deeds fall off of us like leaves from a tree when we do our salah.

A person who makes salah the right way feels good inside. The Shaytan is pushed away and only good thoughts stay with us.

Salah is good for us for these four reasons:

1. We remember Allah more.
2. Our bad deeds are forgiven.
3. We feel good inside.
4. It keeps Shaytan away.
QUESTIONS TO ANSWER

Part A.
Read each word and write down what it means.

1. Salah:

2. Habit:

3. Remember Allah:

Part B.
Answer the questions below.

4. At what age should we learn to pray?

5. What did Prophet Muhammad ﷺ say about the prayer?

6. Name two reasons why salah is good for us.
Lesson 22
I can make wudu’
What should you do before you eat? You should wash your hands because they may be dirty. It is not nice or healthy to eat with dirty hands.

Likewise, when we come to make salah, we want to be clean when we are standing in front of Allah and talking to Him.

Before we make salah, we need to wash ourselves first. This is called making wudu'.

It is easy to make wudu’. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught us the different parts of wudu’. Let's go over them together.
The first thing you do is say to yourself that you want to make wudu’. Then you say out loud, "Bismi Allahi Ar-Rahmani Ar-Rahim." That means "In the Name of Allah, the Most Caring and the Most Kind."

Whenever we begin anything, we should say this so that Allah will help us.

We have to make sure the water we use is clean. We can make wudu’ at the sink, in a lake or even in the ocean!
Wash hands three times. Right side first.

Wash mouth three times. Use right hand.

Wash nose three times.

Wash face three times.

Wash up to the elbows three times. Do right side first.

Rub wet fingers over the hair.

Clean ears with fingers.

Wash feet with left hand. Do the right foot first.
When you finish your wudu’, you say the Shahadah.

- Ashahadu an la ilaha illa Allah.
  Wa asahadu anna Muhammadar Rasulullah

Now your wudu’ is done and you are ready to make salah!

How long does your wudu’ last? You don’t have to make your wudu’ every time you make salah if your wudu’ is still good.

How do you know if your wudu’ is still good?

Your wudu’ is only lost if one of these four things happen:

1. You use the bathroom.
2. You go to sleep.
3. You pass gas.
4. You start bleeding.

If none of these happen and another time for salah comes, you don’t need to make your wudu’ again. You can go and pray because your wudu’ is still good.
QUESTIONS TO ANSWER

Part A.
Read each word and write down what it means.

1. Wudu:

2. Shahadah:

Part B.
Answer the questions below.

3. Why do we make wudu?

4. When do we need to make a new wudu?
Lesson 23
I can make salah
Making salah is fun and easy. But you have to learn how to do it first. Do you remember how many times a day we make salah? Yes, five times. Do you remember why we make salah? We make Allah™ happy with us and wash away our bad deeds.

When we make salah, we need to make wudu’ first by cleaning ourselves with water.

We must be dressed in clean clothes for salah, and girls need to also cover their hair.

Muslims pray facing the direction of the Ka’bah. The Ka’bah is far away in a city called Makkah. Do you remember who used to live in that city? Prophet Muhammad™!

The Ka’bah is a building that looks like a black box. It was made a long time ago by Prophet Ibrahim and his son, Isma’il. Do you remember Prophet Ibrahim? He was the one who used to ask Allah™ to always teach him good things.

One day, Allah™ gave Prophet Ibrahim a hard test. Allah asked him if he loved his son more or Allah more. Prophet Ibrahim said he loved Allah™ the most.
So Allah gave Prophet Ibrahim a lot of rewards and asked him to build the Ka‘bah, so people could go there and remember Allah.

We face the Ka‘bah to show Allah that we love him.

- Do you know which direction the Ka‘bah is?
After you are facing the Ka‘bah and you’re ready to start your salah, the first thing you have to do is say to yourself that you are going to make your salah.

Then you raise your hands up to your ears and say, "Allahu Akbar." Girls raise their hands to their shoulders.

Next, you fold your right hand over your left. Boys place them over their tummy, and girls place them over their chest. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught us to say our salah in Arabic. It also helps us to practice our Qur'an reading.

After we start our salah, we must be quiet and still. We just told Allah to look at us, so we don’t want to be noisy or rude. We should stand straight and not talk or look around. If we laugh, then we have to start over.
Here are the movements of salah:

Part 1. Say to yourself that you are going to make salah. Next, say, "Allahu Akbar" and raise hands. Boys raise the hands up to the side of their ears and girls up to their shoulders. This is called making the takbeer.

Part 2. Read Surat Al-Fatihah and then another short surah of the Qur'an. Sometimes when you pray in a group, the imam will say them out loud.

Part 3. Say, "Allahu Akbar." Bend forward, putting your hands on your knees. Say, "Subhana Rabbi-ul-Adheem" three times. That means "Glory to my Lord the Great One." This is called ruku'.
Part 1. Say: "Allahu Akbar" and stand up again. Say Surat Al Fatiha again and then say a different surah after it.

Part 2. Say: "Subhana Rabbi al A'la" three times. Turn your face towards your right, then towards your left, then towards the Ka'ba, and keep these movements in your heart. Keep your knees bent and say: "Allah hears those who praise Him.

Part 4. Say: "Allahu Akbar" and repeat the movements you did earlier. Turn your face towards your right, then towards your left, then towards the Ka'ba, and keep these movements in your heart. Keep your knees bent and say: "Allah hears those who praise Him.

Part 5. Bow down on the floor. Keep the elbows and heels up off the ground. Say: "Subhana Rabbi al A'la." Three times. Then sit up again.

Part 7. Do Part 5 over again.

Part 8. Say: "Allahu Akbar" and stand up again. Say Surat Al Fatiha again and then say a different surah after it.
That was one part of the salah. Each part is called a rak‘ah. Every salah has its own number of rak‘aat (plural of rak‘ah). Here is a list of every salah and how many rak‘aat it has:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Salah</th>
<th>Number of Rak‘aat</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fajr</td>
<td>2 rak‘aat</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thuhr</td>
<td>4 rak‘aat</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘Asr</td>
<td>4 rak‘aat</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Maghrib</td>
<td>3 rak‘aat</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘Isha</td>
<td>4 rak‘aat</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Your teacher or parents can show you how to do a 2-rak‘aat prayer.

In our last sitting, we have a small du‘a to say. The first is called the Tashahud and it begins like this:

"Ataa hiyatu lillaahee wa salawatu wa tayyibat. Assalaam ‘alayka ayyuha nabeeyu wa rahmatullahe wa barakatuhu. As-salaamu ‘alayna wa ‘ala ‘ibadil lahis saaliheen."

It means "All purity, prayer and goodness belong to Allah. Peace be upon you Prophet, and Allah’s mercy and blessings. Peace be upon us and upon all good servants of Allah."
Then say the Shahadah.
"Asahhadu an la ilaha illa Allah. Wa asahhadu anna Muhammadar Rasulullah."
Ashhaddu 'at la illa illaha wa ashhaddu 'at mukhaddar rasoolu'llaha

The second du'a we say after the Tashahud is called As-Salat al Ibrahimiyya. It goes like this:
Allahumma sallee 'ala Muhammadeen wa 'ala aalee Muhammadeen. Kama sallayta 'ala Ibraheema wa 'ala aalee Ibraheema. Innaka hameedun Majeed.
Allahumma barik 'ala Muhammadeen wa 'ala aalee Muhammadeen. Kama barakta 'ala Ibraheema wa 'ala aalee Ibraheema fil 'alameen. Innaka hameedun majeed.

It means "Allah give grace to Muhammad and his family, just as You gave grace to Ibrahim and his family.
You are indeed the Praiseworthy and Majestic.

Allah give blessings to Muhammad and his family, just as You gave blessings to Ibrahim and his family.
in all the world. You are indeed the praiseworthy and Majestic."

Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught us to end our salah by saying salams to the two angels sitting on our right and left shoulders. Turn your head to the right and say, "As-salaamu ‘alaykum wa rahmatullah" to the angel sitting on your right shoulder and then turn your head to the left and do the same to the angel sitting on your left shoulder. Remember, they are always there to write down all the good and bad deeds you do.

Turn your head to the right and say, "As-salaamu ‘alaykum wa rahmatullah." That means "Peace be upon you and Allah’s mercy."

Then turn your face to the left and say the same thing. Your salah is now finished!
Part A.
Read each word and write down what it means.

1. Sajdah: ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

2. Ruku': _______________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

3. Rak’ah: _______________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

Part B.
Answer the questions below.

4. When do we say Surat Al Fatihah in our salah? _____________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

5. How do we end our salah? _______________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
Lesson 24
My family fasts in Ramadan
Ramadan is the name of a month in the Islamic calendar. Do you know what Muslims do during the month of Ramadan? We stop eating and drinking during the day. This is called fasting. The word for fasting in Arabic is siyam. Siyam is a gift for people from Allah.

- Have you ever fasted before?
- Do you know anyone who has fasted in Ramadan?

Allah tells us in the Qur'an to fast in Ramadan. He says, "You people who believe! I am asking you to fast, just like I asked people before you to fast. Fasting is so you can learn good behavior."

So if someone asks you why you fast, the answer is we want to obey Allah and to learn good behavior. Remember, fasting is one of the five pillars of Islam. It teaches us to be nice to people, to help the poor and needy, to not complain about your food, and to thank Allah for what you have.
Ramadan starts when we see the new moon. The new moon is called the hilal. Every day in Ramadan we get up very early, before the light of morning. We have to eat an early breakfast because one of the rules of Ramadan is that we can’t eat again until Maghrib time. This early breakfast is called sahoor. Prophet Muhammadﷺ told us to eat sahoor because it is good for us.

When the time for Fajr Salah comes, we have to stop eating and drinking. We can’t even chew gum! Little children don’t have to fast yet, but they can practice fasting so they will be good at it when they are older.

Do you know anyone who does practice fasting?

Prophet Muhammadﷺ also said that a person who is fasting cannot tell a lie or fight with anyone. Do you remember what the lesson of fasting is? What are we supposed to learn? Right, good behavior. So we have to be good in how we act also.
Do you remember when we can start eating and drinking again? Yes, when the time for Maghrib Salah comes we can eat with our family and say a du‘a thanking Allah for the food. This meal is called Iftar.

There are many lessons we can learn from fasting. The first and most important one is good behavior. But there is more. When we stop eating all day, we get very hungry. There are many poor people in the world who are hungry all the time.
When we are done fasting we can eat at iftar time, but there are many people who do not have food to eat. Even some small children are hungry everyday. When we learn how it feels to be hungry, we understand how poor people feel. We also learn to be thankful to Allah for the food we have.

Fasting makes us want to help the poor people. Allah showed us a way to do this. He said we should give money to the poor every year, so they can eat. This is called giving Zakah - another pillar of Islam.

Most Muslims give zakah money to the poor during Ramadan. Ramadan is a special month when Allah rewards us more for our good deeds. Most Muslims give zakah to the poor during Ramadan so they can get more good deeds. He told us that zakah is our duty, and we must give it. Our parents give zakah every year. When we are older and have a job, we will give zakah, too!

We learn many lessons in Ramadan! In Ramadan, you practice good behavior, and you learn to feel sorry for the poor people in the world.
What are the two lessons we just learned?

Color them!

Have you ever helped your parents give zakah money?
Every night in Ramadan many Muslims go to the masjid for special prayers. They are called tarawih prayers. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ used to do them.

The imam will read one part of the Qur’an every night until the entire Qur’an is finished. The people will line up in rows behind him and will listen quietly.

When Ramadan is finally over, after thirty days, then we have a holiday! Hooray! This is called ‘Eid ul-Fitr’. On ‘Eid morning, we dress up in our nicest clothes and go to the masjid for the special ‘Eid salah. We may get special treats on ‘Eid from our family. It is a very happy and fun day for us! For the next three days we may enjoy parties, events and family gatherings.

What is your favorite thing to do on the ‘Eid?

Don’t forget to tell people, “‘Eid Mubarak!” That means “A blessed ‘Eid to you!”
QUESTIONS TO ANSWER

Part A.
Read each word and write down what it means.

1. Siyam:.................................................................................................................................................................
....................................................................................................................................................................................
....................................................................................................................................................................................

2. ‘Eid ul Fitr:...............................................................................................................................................................
....................................................................................................................................................................................
....................................................................................................................................................................................

3. Zakah:........................................................................................................................................................................
....................................................................................................................................................................................
....................................................................................................................................................................................

Part B.
Answer the questions below.

4. Why do we fast?...........................................................................................................................................................
....................................................................................................................................................................................
....................................................................................................................................................................................
....................................................................................................................................................................................

5. Name three things we shouldn’t do during the day in Ramadan?
....................................................................................................................................................................................
....................................................................................................................................................................................
....................................................................................................................................................................................
Lesson 25
I love the Ka’bah
Do you remember the name of the city where Prophet Muhammad ﷺ was born? It is called the city of Makkah. Do you remember what else is there? Yes, the Ka‘bah is in Makkah.

The Ka‘bah was built a long time ago by Prophet Ibrahim and his son Isma‘il. They made the Ka‘bah to be a place to pray to Allah ﷻ.

Many years later the people in Makkah forgot about Allah ﷻ and they started to pray to idols. Idols were just pieces of rock and trees that people carved into faces. They were not real and could do nothing at all.

The people even put those idols in the Ka‘bah. That was very bad because the Ka‘bah was a place for people to remember the only God, Allah ﷻ.

After many more years, Allah ﷻ chose a good man to teach the people to forget about the idols. He was Prophet Muhammad ﷺ!
We live in America, and the Ka’bah is in Makkah, Saudi Arabia.

We are here!
The people did not want to change, so they were very mean to the Prophet ﷺ. This was not fair because Prophet Muhammad ﷺ was always nice to them. The bad people used to fight anyone who believed in the Prophet’s teachings.

To live more peacefully, Muslims moved to a city called Al-Madinah. Everyone was happy there. The idol worshippers of Makkah tried to fight the Muslims three times after that.

After a while, Prophet Muhammad ﷺ was able to go with other Muslims to Makkah for Hajj. Muslims make Hajj to visit the Ka‘bah and to tell Allah® that they love Him, just like Prophet Ibrahim did! Muslims still do this today.

Do you know anyone who has made the Hajj to Makkah?
Did you ever travel in a plane?

When we decide to go for Hajj, we have to remember that we are going for Allah’s Will. We want to see the place Prophet Ibrahim built. There are no idols there anymore because Prophet Muhammad removed them all.
There are many things to do on Hajj. The most important is to walk around the Ka’bah seven times and tell Allah that you are ready to serve Him. This is called the tawaf.

Allah does not live in the Ka’bah. It is just a place we can all visit to show we love Him.

The people who make Hajj also run up and down two hills seven times. Hajar, the mother of Prophet Isma'il did this a long time ago to look for water when her husband, Prophet Ibrahim, went on a journey. She didn’t find any water, so Allah made a fountain of water bubble up from the ground. This is called the well of Zamzam.

After all these years, that water continues to flow and Muslims drink from it when they visit the Ka‘bah. If we do all of the parts of Hajj right, then Allah said He will forgive our bad deeds. When the Hajj is over, there is another holiday called the ‘Eid Al Adha with more fun things to do with family and friends. But don’t forget the lesson of Hajj: to tell Allah that we love Him the most.
QUESTIONS TO ANSWER

Part A.
Read each word and write down what it means.

1. Hajj:

2. Tawaf:

3. Zamzam:

Part B.
Answer the questions below.

4. Why do we make Hajj?

5. Why is Makkah a special city?
Unit 5 Review Questions

Part A.
Use another piece of paper to write your answers. Write each word and then tell what it means.

1. Hajj
2. Tawaf
3. Ruku’
4. Ramadan
5. ‘Eid Al Adha
6. Siyam

Part B.
Answer these questions on your paper. Write each question first and then give the answer.

7. What is the lesson of Hajj?
8. What are two things we learn from siyam?
9. What are two things we learn from salah?
Unit Six 6
Caring for the World

www.Noorart.com
Lesson 26
The world is a big place
Allah made the world and everything in it. Do you know the name of our world?

The world we live in is called Earth.

Allah said that He made Earth to be our home. There are many places to go in our world. There are rivers, mountains, lakes, deserts, plains and oceans.

Have you ever been to any of these places?

What did you like most about them?

Every place looks different and we can discover all the beautiful things Allah created for us on earth! He said in the Qur’an that traveling is the best way to learn about people who lived long ago.
When we visit old cities made of stone and ruins from ancient times, we remember that all people will meet Allahٰ one day when their life here is over.

Traveling teaches us good lessons.

Going on a journey can be very exciting. But we must remember Allahٰ wherever we go and thank Him for making it possible for us to travel. We are able to travel by car, bus, boat and plane.

Prophet Muhammadٰ taught us a special du’a to say before we start to travel. Do you know it? It goes like this: "Subhan allathee sakhara lana hatha wa ma koona lahu mukrineen. Wa inna ela rabbina lamoon qaliboon."

"سبحان الذي سخر لنا هذا وما كنا له مقرنين، وإننا إلى ربانا هنقلبوت"
That means "Praise be to the One Who gave us control over this because we couldn’t master it by ourselves. And to our Lord we will go back."

We can travel to many different places in our world to see some of the signs of Allah. The signs that Allah put in nature help us to remember Him more. One of these places are farms.

There are many farms in the world. Farming is important. Do you know why? Farmers grow the food we eat, and they milk the cows so we can have it with our cereal in the morning.

Allah makes the sun shine and grass grow.
Allah says in the Qur'an that farms have many signs for us. Who do you think makes the plants grow or the cows give milk? Right, Allah helps the farmers by making the sun shine and the grass grow.

He gave us control over the animals, so we could have meat to eat. He also told us to follow some rules. We are not allowed to hurt an animal or plant for any reason. It is haram. If we are not going to eat the plant or animal, then it is haram for us to hurt or kill it.

Do you think animals can feel things like we do such as hot and cold or even pain? Of course they do! So, wherever you go in the world, be nice to every living thing you see.
We are not alone. Allah made many worlds out in space. Space is where all the stars and planets are.

Have you ever looked up in the sky at night and saw all the pretty stars?

Allah said that everything in space and on earth praises him. This means that all of Allah’s creations are saying, "Subhan Allah" in their own way. It also means anything that is alive out in space is praising Allah, too. Maybe there are creatures living on other planets. Only Allah knows.

Do you remember what "Subhan Allah" means? It means "Glory to Allah."

The Qur’an is the perfect book. Allah made it for all times and all places. We learn many things from the Qur’an. Even though it was given to Prophet Muhammad long ago, we read things in it that amaze us.
Allah said that one day people would be able to leave Earth and go into space. He said that could only happen when we discover a new power source. Now we have rocket engines and men have walked on the moon!

- Would you like to travel to the moon?
- What would you see there?
QUESTIONS TO ANSWER

Part A.
Read each word and write down what it means.

1. Subhan Allah: __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

2. Earth: ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________

3. Space: ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________

Part B.
Answer the questions below.

4. What does traveling teach us? __________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________

5. What did Allah say about space? _______________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________
Surat An-Nasr

When Prophet Muhammadﷺ was living in Arabia a long time ago, he was trying to get people to learn about Allahﷻ. But some people tried to hurt him and make him stop. These people wanted to pray to stone statues and do bad deeds.

Prophet Muhammadﷺ sometimes felt sad that some people did not listen. Some of the Muslims also were sad. But Allahﷻ knew that the Muslims would win, so He gave this message to Prophet Muhammadﷺ telling him that Islam was strong and would keep on growing. When the Muslims heard this surah, they became happy and everyone worked harder to tell people about their Lord.

Surat An-Nasr in Arabic

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
إِذَا اجَآءَ نَصْرُ اللَّهِ وَالْفَاتِحُ ۖ وَرَأَيْتَ الْنَّاسَ يَدْخُلُونَ فِي دِينِ اللَّهِ أَفْوَاجًا ۖ فَسَيَنَّحْ يُحَمَّدَ رَبِّكَ وَآسْتَغْفِرْهُ إِنَّهُ مَيْتُو بَيْنَا ۖ حَسَّانُ ۖ تَوَابًا ۗ}

سُورَةُ النَّصْرُ 110: 1 – 3
Bismi Allahi Ar-Rahmani Ar-Rahim

Itha jaa nasru Allahi walfath
Waraayta annasa yadhkuloona fee deeni Allahi afwaja
Fasabbihi bihamdi rabbika wastaghfirhu
innahu kana tawwaba

The meaning of Surat An-Nasr is:

In the Name of Allah, the Most Caring and the Most Kind.

When Allah’s help comes and you win the contest, and when you see people becoming Muslims everywhere, then you should glorify and praise your Lord and ask Him to forgive you for any bad deeds you did. He really loves to forgive.